OUR STORY

YJP was founded by Dr. Gadis Arivia, feminist and lecturer at the Department of Philosophy, Faculty of Humanities, University of Indonesia. Dr. Ida Dhanny, the late Asikin Arif, MA and Prof. Dr. Toeti Heraty Noerhadi supported her in establishing YJP. Motivated by the absence of feminist reading materials, the group wished to see the birth of the first feminist journal in Indonesia published in 1996. With the arrival of the Reformation Era in 1998, Gadis, Karlina Supelli and Wilasih rallied against the authoritarian New Order Regime by organizing Suara Ibu Peduli (The Voice of Concerned Mothers), and were detained on 23 February 1998. Since then, YJP is recognised as a leading organisation advocating the importance of democracy and human rights and believes strongly that women’s rights are human rights.

YJP is dedicated to research, publication, training and education to empower women in Indonesia. YJP strives to eliminate discrimination in the work place, schools, justice system and all other sectors in society. Its research and publication is disseminated widely through social media and weekly newsletter.

JOURNAL & BOOK PUBLICATION:

Jurnal Perempuan (The Women's Journal) is YJP's core activity. It was first published in 1996 as the first feminist journal in Indonesia. By 2016, JP has produced 91 editions and it is to date considered the number one reference on feminism in Indonesia. YJP is also active in publishing books on feminism in Indonesian and in English authored by women.

SEMINAR, TRAINING & PUBLIC EDUCATION:

YJP regularly organise seminars and trainings to different groups of audiences interested in gender issues such as for journalists, professionals, students and civil society organisations. Each training uses the journal or modules created by YJP. Each issue of the journal is discussed in a public education program held in different provinces.

KAFFE:

KAFFE (Feminism and Philosophy Study) is monthly courses offered to the public on a wide range of topics such as public ethics, Islamic Feminism, human rights and democracy. Each courses are filmed and available to the public at YJP's youtube channel. Thus far the courses are in high demand.
